Correspondance Franklin Township fiscal officer passed away. The township sent flowers.

Safety: Everything is good.

Fire: FO had first payment on contract for all 3 fire departments. Board discussed new 2026 fire code.

Trustee Mack made a motion for the township to adopt the new fire code. Trustee VanBuren seconded the motion.

National Trails Fire Department requested help buying new gear and boots. Trustee Hupp made a motion to donate $10,000 out of the fire fund toward the purchase of the new gear. Trustee VanBuren seconded the motion. All in favor.

Zoning: Zoning inspector, Greg Reis, was not present. Trustee Hupp reported he did not issue any permits and is still working on the container issue east of Brownsville.

The board of zoning appeals board will need a couple of new members.

Unfinished Business: Update on the building construction. The concrete pad and the septic are installed. The plumber will need to get a final inspection. Should be building final in the next 3-4 weeks.

Public Comment:

Jack Ward heard there is a possibility the government may temporarily suspend gas tax. This may cut into our budget.
