Correspondence:

FO had resolution to request salt at state bid price. Trustee Hupp made a motion to request 25 tons of salt through the state bid pricing. Trustee Mack seconded the motion.

Trustee Hupp thanked everyone who participated in the Easter egg hunt. There was a good turn out.

Received quote of between $2100-$3600 from Flowers Septic System Company for designing the septic system at the new building. After some discussion, Trustee Mack made a motion to approve the quote from Flowers. Trustee VanBuren seconded the motion.

Fire Company: Tom Roberts from National Trails Volunteer Fire Department asked about the go-cart track. The owner has been sent a letter stating 5 requirements (stated below in zoning section) before he can operate again. Mr. Roberts also asked about the change in the way calls are routed because they are no longer receiving calls for their area of the township. Trustee Mack will look into this and figure it out.

Zoning: 1 - cell tower upgrade equipment Permit $1,000 at 10214 Honda Hills Road

1 - Room addition Permit $250, Austin & Alexis Walker at 10966 Midland Oil Road

1 - Accessory Structure Paid $250, Joshua & Crystall Field at 8569 Somerset Road

The list below are permit denials

1) Sandy Ramey at 11830 Laurel Hill Road. Denied an additional dwelling to be lived in.

Explained only one occupied dwelling per lot/parcel

2) Janet & Ronald Clippinger at 13177 Laurel Hill Road. Lot split denied - less than 250 minimum road frontage. They wanted a flag lot with only 25' of frontage.

One violation letter sent to: Jack Swinderman at 15727 Main ST for adding a structure to the current garage without a zoning permit.

2 of the 5 parcels that have more than one occupied dwelling has been resolved. The other 3 will get a final violation notice on May 15th. The Prosecuting Attorney has been notified and will receive a copy of the final notice. If they do not vacate the owner will be subject to $100 a day fines until they comply and or prosecution.

Go cart tract owner at Midland Oil and Rt. 40 has been contacted by phone after the racing that occurred. I explained to him he needed to produce the following;

- 1) Legal State of Ohio Club License.
- 2) Insurance
- 3) EPA & Licking County Soil & water Permit (tract is less than 20' from the watershed/creek)
- 4) EMS contract for full event coverage.
- 5) ODOT approval to be less than 50' from Rt. 40 and for event parking.

I also explained if another event occurred he would be fined and the Prosecuting Attorney would be contacted.

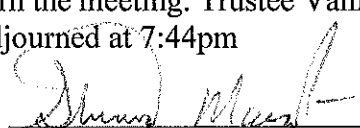

Unfinished Business: Update on new building. Gas line needs hooked up. Working on water and septic.

New Business: Cherry Hill Rd needs culvert replaced. Trustees received an estimate of $8,900. Also the culvert on Mulberry needs replaced. The county has a grant to replace culverts. Trustee Mack will pick up paperwork so we can apply.

Public Comment -None
